

Advisory Board of the Government of Germany's on Global Health

Dr. Sania Nishtar joins the International Advisory Board of the Federal Government of Germany's on Global Health and attended its first meeting in Berlin from July 1-3. This board advises on current challenges and trends in global health and makes suggestions how Germany could further develop its engagement in the international community as the leading government, globally to promote global health.

