

First Newsletter of Sania Nishtar's WHO Director-General Election Campaign

April 10, 2017: The first campaign newsletter has just been launched and can be accessed here. As Sania Nishtar tours Latin America and the Caribbean meeting heads of state and ministers of health and foreign affairs to promote her candidature, experts and respected personalities from across the region come forward to support her campaign, including the Sir George Alleyne, Darwin Labarthe, Beatriz Champagne and many others.

